

HOUSING AND SHELTERS

SUBSIDIZED HOUSING

Subsidized Housing – HUD helps apartment owners offer reduced rents to low-income tenant. Rent changes according to income. Rent is determined 30-40% of your monthly income in a subsidized unit. The subsidy stays with the apartment when a tenant moves, unlike the Section 8, Housing Choice Voucher.

AFFORDABLE/LOW INCOME (Tax Credit) HOUSING

This list will include apartments that are considered affordable for low-income households. The list will also include Low-income (or Tax Credit) apartments have a reduced rent that is designated for low-income households that are below a certain level of the area's median income. These Low-income apartments have base rates for rent prices.
